Please find enclosed your new policy documents together with the information provided. If you are satisfied that this information is correct, there is no further action for you to take. If any information is not correct contact us immediately and advise us of the relevant corrections.

No Claims Bonus & Driving Licence Verification

You have declared that the licence, conviction details and No Claims Bonus are correct and upon request or at the time of any claim you will be required to provide acceptable documentary proof of these. Upon receipt we will use the documents provided to confirm your no claims entitlement, driving entitlement, and driving convictions and we may share this information with numerous insurers.
